Recruitment and Selection Information

February 2018

Glamorgan Spring Bay Council is committed to employment via merit selection which is based on ensuring the best person for the job will be hired. Discriminatory attributes such as gender, age, religion, political beliefs and so forth as covered by Tasmanian anti-discrimination legislation will not be considered or influence recruitment and selection decisions.

After applications are received they will normally be shortlisted against the selection criteria as outlined in the last section of the position description. Assessment of these criteria is carried out by reviewing all information provided by the applicant in their application.

An interview process will typically involve a panel of people that may include people outside of Council. Depending on the content to be covered interviews can range from 20 minutes to two hours and conducted face to face, via video links or over the phone. Applicants will be tested against the same criteria and the interviewee may be asked to elaborate further on information provided in their application.

A process may involve more than one interview with the same or different people, aptitude testing, psychometric analysis and referee checking. Preferred applicants may also be required to undertake a medical as per the risks identified for the position, their health disclosure and general compliance with Council's safety requirements.

Successful applicants will be advised verbally in the first instance of Council's offer and subsequently provided with a contract of employment for consideration. Generally people have up to 14 days to consider an offer made.

In some instances relocation assistance may be offered to a successful applicant.

Recruitment processes can take anywhere between two to 12 weeks to carry out depending on the components involve, applicant availability and location. During this time questions on progress should be directed to the person listed in the advertisement for specific position being filled.

Glamorgan Spring Bay Council does not provide for an appeal process with respect of recruitment and selection decisions.
